Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1953, wish to dedicate this "Laker" school annual to Miss Ardis Kent, who for the past eight years has been our commercial teacher and has so patiently seen us through our troubled times while we have been trying to learn how to type, to take shorthand, and to do our bookkeeping.

She has also been our faithful adviser for our school paper, "The Crystal Gazer."

ADMINISTRATION

J. C. Rutherford

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Throughout your high school career your progress has been recorded in a variety of reports.

In these years you have created for yourself a record of character, personality, scholastic ability and manual skill.

This annual adds one more record of your achievement.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To live a full and satisfying life is our art enhanced by a well rounded Educational program. This is a privilege of every American cherished by many abused by some. Let's all remember that an Educated Nation is a progressive, freedom loving but fearless Nation. Publilius Syrus once said "It is only the ignorant who despise education."

School Board

Seated: Mrs. Lester Blasing, Secretary; Mr. C. Martin Miller, Treasurer; Mr. T. Lauren Owens, Mr. Charles Atkins.

Standing: Superintendent J. C. Rutherford; Mr. Ira Addleman; Dr. D. N. Derksen, President.

Class Poem

Some classes say, "My, we've had fun!"
This class of ours couldn't get much done.

In most class meetings, general discussion
Ran from John's new gun to Margaret's cousin.

Grades seven and eight had their trials, it's true,
Instead of green Freshmen, our class was blue!

As Sophomores, our minds held memories bright,
The Freshmen bowed to us on Initiation Night!

Our Junior year, that was a sight!
We thought for sure Busby and Rita would fight.

"Over what?" you ask, to us it's clear,
Around that time the banquet was near.

Senior year, and we are ready to collapse,
All we could think of was diplomas and caps.

After a game you hear, "That tackle was terrific!"
Miss Luck says, "Who killed Banquo, and be specific!"

Yes, the games were exciting, the skip-days what fun!
We hate to think it so soon will be done.

Mr. Nelson, our principal, has the nickname "Nels",
On his list of worldly assets, education tops all else.

To us, Mr. Berglund, government is old,
Nevertheless, on him the girls are sold.

An athletic man, he likes music with a swing,
Mr. Madson, our advisor, can be found at Northrup King.

Seen a redhead, a short little squirt?
Friendly as sunshine, and busy with work?

This annual is dedicated to Miss Kent, as you know,
With appreciation, devotion, and thanks as we go.

Upon Mr. Harmeyer we have been able to depend,
For help on the annual to the very end.

The other teachers are too many to name,
You know them anyhow, so the difference is the same.

And now to pause and think awhile--
To try to cause a grin or smile.

Our class members? Well, here we go--
If you haven't met them, get ready for the blow!

First of the week, quarter to nine,
And that John James will never be on time!

Margaret never used to be serious,
After this year, nothing is mysterious!

Mickey heads the F.F.A.,
In that department, deserves an "A".

With her cute little clothes and smelly perfume,
You know it's JoAnn Owens when she enters the room.

Class Poem

Dennis Mikkelson, with a very sensitive nose,
Says he doesn't like it, and to Cambria he goes.

Mary Lou has long dark hair,
And plays her sax with a flair.

Loren says, "Watermellons are fine,
But when I look for them, they're not on the vine."

Eva Roberts is fair to be seen,
That's why we chose her as our Homecoming Queen.

Ronnie Laingen knows how to plow and drag,
This must be the reason for his interest in Ag.

Nedra has a pretty name, but that's not all you see,
She also has a pleasing smile and personality.

Going to the banquet for some was a scare,
But it wasn't his car, so Don Lewis didn't care.

In bookkeeping class, Loretta's a whiz,
But when asked her future plans, she says, "It's like this--."

The music lover of our class is Jack Stiles,
To ride in his car is one of life's trials.

Shirley as a blonde, looks very nice in blue,
We needn't mention peroxide, for we know her blonde is true.

When Busby's not working, sometimes he's at school,
And if he's not there, he'll be found playing pool.

Rita is known as a heavy-footed driver,
If you want to get nervous, try riding beside her.

Our boy, Ralph, is a basketball hope,
By his work at Red & White, you can see he's no dope.

When working at the restaurant, Darlene Martin gets around,
You can see its necessary in such a large town.

Lennis is a menace, some folks might say,
But we know it isn't true, for we see him every day.

Jo Ann Hudson seems rather shy,
But wait until she's with her special guy.

Homer Jarvis is a muscular man,
If ther's work to be done, find him if you can!

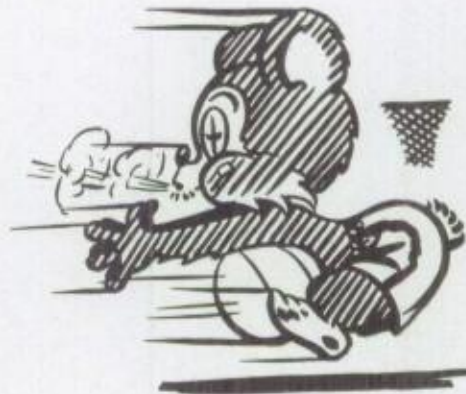

Betty Ellen has always been a cheerleader,
Come up to the Sandwich Shop and you can meet her.

One thing Burton has, is a smooth leather jacket,
If he had a motorcycle, he might cause a racket!

Dean holds his own in politics and football,
The same is true as he walks down the hall.

Harland Thomas is quite the guy,
We know the reason, can you guess why?

What her future plans will be, Marcille will never say,
I've yet to see a teacher that made it there that way!

Don Luiken, how fast he can go!
But looking at him, my he seems slow.

A worker in the produce business is John Williams,
That must be the way he plans to make his millions.

To write this poem was a difficult task,
Nevertheless we three had been asked,
We're the only ones not written about,
So we'll sign our names to remove all doubt!

Class Song

Tune--"Dainty Brenda Lee"

This is our story,
That we will tell you,
How it begins,
And just how it ends.

Not so long ago,
We first said hello,
When we entered in grade school.

We will not forget,
All the friends we've made,
And the teachers who taught us.

We worked and we slaved,
Till we finally raved,
When the weary day would end.

It was not so bad,
Now we're really glad,
That we had the chance to learn.

All the tricks we tried,
The times we laughed and we cried,
Soon we entered high,
Told the grades good-bye,
We have reached half our goal.

Then there were the games,
We shared all the blames,
Everytime we'd win or lose.

How we'll miss the dances,
That started many romances,
Then we traded rings,
A memory it brings,
Of the dear old days gone by.

We will reminisce,
Of the hope and bliss,
Long after graduation day,
Words by Rita H., JoAnn Owens.

Class Will

We, the class of nineteen hundred fifty-three, having made regular attendance for twelve years in the school of Lake Crystal, Blue Earth County, State of Minnesota, and republic of the United States, do hereby feel justly authorized to bequeth our remaining goods to our friends, enemies, rivals, and back-slappers, before we become mere memories.

Article I--To the Junior Class we leave the privilege of running the school as they have been trying to do for the last 11 years.

Article II--To the Sophomore Class we leave the privilege of putting on a Junior Class Play and a Junior-Senior Banquet.

Article III--To the Freshmen Class we leave the privilege of being able to enter Senior Highschool.

Article IV--To Mr. Madson, our Senior advisor, we leave a bag of peanuts.

Article V--To the rest of the faculty we leave our quiet ways and polite manners.

Article VI--To the janitors we leave an orderly school with broken desks.

Article VII--We the Senior Class bestow on our underclassmates the following gifts:

Eva Roberts wills her crown to any lucky Junior girl.
Jack Stiles wills his desire to date classmates to Janet Thomas.
Homer Jarvis will his seat in the Senior room to Cary Lou Johnson.
Nedra Jones wills her shorthand ability to Pat Peterson.
Jo Ann Hudson wills her long hair to Betty Sorenson.
Donald Lewis will his interest in Butternut to Tom Williams.
John James wills his ability to get to school on time to Harry Peterson.
Betty Roberts wills her night life to Victor Morris.
Loretta Ash wills her diamond to Carol Howard.
Mary Lou Dauk wills her working ability to Virginia Wrightson.
Darlene Martin wills her studying ability to Earl Blackley.
Burton Sorgatz wills his ability to play the accordian to Lennus Thorstad.
Donald Luiken wills his muscular build to Nadine Jenkins.
Dean Childs wills his ability to get along with girls to George Miller.
Ralph Etherington wills his interest in a grocery store to Donald Blasing.
Ronald Laingen wills his quiet ways to Doug Pritchard.
Janice Lamb wills her interest in the Press Club to Louie Weimern.
JoAnn Owens wills her dimples to Roger Jones.
Rita Heiderscheid wills her careful driving to Bob Rasmussen.
Marcille Jensen wills her love of school life to Darlene Wilkens.
Harland Thomas wills his height to Bill Griffis.
Loren Prange wills his ability to play the trombone to Lowell Robinson.
Dennis Mikkelson wills his interest in chemistry to Grace Thomas.
Robert Busby leaves his false teeth to Martin Jones.
Shirley Zimmerman leaves her speaking ability to Carol Lloyd.
Mickey Davis wills his shyness to Ina Mae Gappa.
Margaret Woolson wills her interest to farm life to LaVorris Falk.
Lennis Hughes leaves his footmobile to Mearlene Espenson.
Linda Roberts wills her musical ability to Bill Pritchard.
Darlene Sandstrom wills her height to Nadine Jenkins.
John Williams wills his ability to be kind to animals to Karen Hanson.

Can You Imagine

Loretta Ash--without a letter from Korea.
Bob Busby--not arguing in Social Class.
Dean Childs--not talking about the "boys".
Jo Ann Hudson--without auburn hair.
Mickey Davis--not being polite.
Shirley Hoeft--having an idle week-end.
Ralph Etherington--without his bubble gum.
John Williams--with curly hair.
Lennis Hughes--using his "own" brain.
Rita Heiderscheid--without a Mercury to drive.
John James--being late for school.
Marcille Jensen--causing a disturbance.
Homer Jarvis--making the honor roll.
Nedra Jones--without a smile.
Dennis Mikkelson--not going to Cambria.
JoAnn Owens--being a Democrat.
Janice Lamb--not in a hurry.
Ronnie Laingen--being six feet tall.
Harland Thomas--without an evil intention.
Darlene Sandstrom--being short.
Linda Roberts--Missing chorus or glee club.
Jack Stiles--driving slow and careful.
Mary Lou Dauk--not being curious.
Eva Roberts--in an ugly mood.
Burton Sorgatz--having enough sleep.
Betty Roberts--without a new vell for cheerleading.
Donald Lewis--unable to drive.
Margaret Woolson--without a certain white letter sweater.
Darlene Martin--being noisy.
Loren Prange--without "Tootie".

Class History

The ladder of life was placed before us to climb in 1941, when our mothers brought us to the Lake Crystal School for the first time. We found our first grade teacher to be Miss Alvord. To start this climb up the school ladder was: Marilyn Arnold, Mary Lou Austin, Robert Busby, Dean Childs, Orlin Church, Freddie Davis, Ralph Etherington, Dennis Graham, Peggy Hanson, JoAnn Hudson, John James, Merle Jenkins, Marlene Lewis, Darlene Martin, Keith Meixell, Louella Mielke, Betty Roberts, Eva Roberts, Linda Roberts, William Schobert, Eloise Smith, and David Swedberg. We seemed to enjoy swinging and sliding on the slippery slide.

Our second year helper was Miss Olive Toft. She found that Freddie Davis and Marlene Lewis had stumbled in the first grade, and Orlin Church, Dennis Graham, and Eloise Smith had decided to climb elsewhere. Darlene Sandstrom, Curtis Foss, Dennis Mikkelsen, and Merlyn Swedberg could see we were having fun, so they decided to join us. At the end of this year's climb, only Curtis Foss left us.

Miss Alexander carefully guided our way in the third grade. Lennis Hughes, Loretta Ash, Geraldine May, and Burton Sorgatz, joined us this year. Marilyn Arnold and Geraldine May were the only ones who looked for a new place to climb at the end of the year. It was this year that Betty and Eva had their only quarrel--over a note.

Mrs. Swemppe was our fourth grade guide. Margaret Woolson was the only new-comer this year, and we lost none of our fellow climbers.

By this time we reached our fifth year we were getting to be a little more careful, only, Merlyn Swedberg and Harold Warner stumbled and fell. James Tenny, Janice Lamb, and Mary Lou Dauk were our new-comers. Under the able and guiding hand of Miss Jones we gathered further knowledge.

Miss Williams looked after us in our sixth year. It was at this time we really learned how to outline. (Did you ever learn how to outline? Well, we did!) Marcille Jensen and Donald Lewis joined us this year. It seems that Don fell asleep in history the first day and has been known as "Sleepy" ever since.

Hurrah! We are now on the second section of the ladder, the Junior High Section. Those who joined us that year were: JoAnn Owens, Mickey Davis, and Dick Zimmerman. Merle Jenkins was the only one to leave us. Mr. Madson was our home room teacher that year. Remember the hard time we had trying to find the different classrooms the first few days.

The eighth grade year was guided by the able and understanding, Mr. Gordon Harmeyer. Rita Heiderscheid, Loren Prange, Wayne Broderson, and Gerald Rice decided to join us that year. Someone, it seems, always gets tired of climbing, and Inez Warner did just that. It was this year that Busby learned to run around the room and was persuaded to run elsewhere.

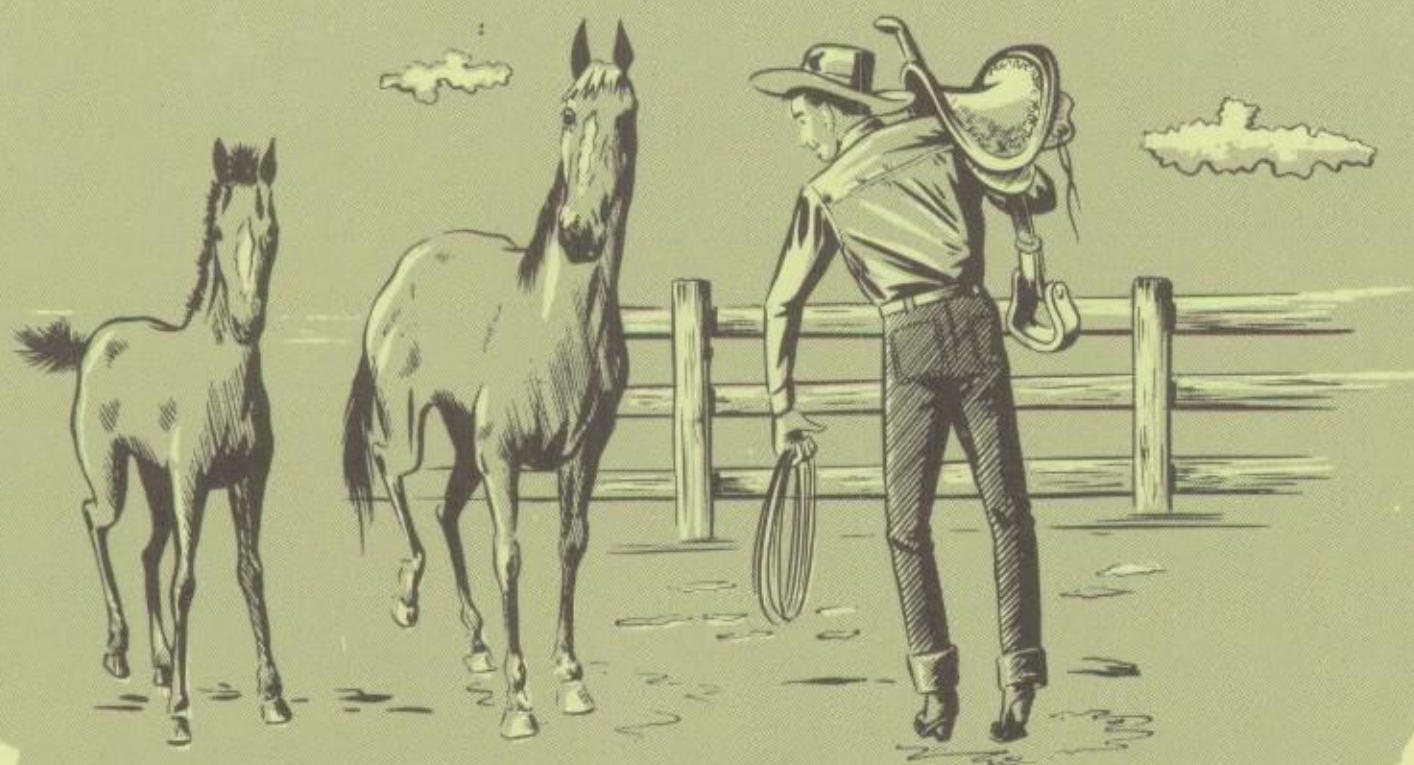

Mr. Harmeyer thought he could understand us, so he guided us through our ever important Freshman year. We acquired quite a few new-comers this year, a few of them were: Delores Larson, Dorothy Dallman, Marcella Heiser, Jim Warner, Ronald Laingen, John Pugh, Harland Thomas, Jack Stiles, and John Williams. We learned how to sell magazines that year, if we didn't learn anything else, we beat the Seniors.

We are now ready for the last section of our ladder, the Senior High Section. Miss Ibberson was our advisor during our Sophomore year. We lost quite a few of our classmates on account of consolidation. Some of them were: Dick Zimmerman, Norma Frizvold, Gerald Rice, Delores Larson, Alice Larson, Dorothy Dallman, Marcella Heiser, John Pugh, Jim Warner. This was the year we got our chance at the Freshman, we initiated them. (Lots of fun wasn't it)

Our Junior year found us wondering "can we make the climb". Mr. Branstad was our loyal advisor this year. We enjoyed our class play, "Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," even if nobody else did. We also entertained the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet at Eibners in New Ulm. At the end of this year we lost only David Swedberg, Keith Meixell, and Leon Martin.

We are now at the top of our long ladder of our school life, our Senior year. Coming back to LCHS for the last time, we again find Mr. Madson as our class advisor. Our worries, there are many, our troubles, are there any? This year found us absent on many occasions, some were our Skip Days, Class trips, etc.

—John James, Betty Roberts, and JoAnn Hudson.

Newspaper

Co-editors--Karen and Janice.

The Press Club is an organization made up of high school students in grades 10, 11, and 12. Our advisors this year have been Miss Luck on proof-reading and Miss Kent on the publishing line. We owe the success of our paper to these faithful workers.

The purpose of the Press Club this year has been to publish news pertaining to high school interests. We have tried new ideas this year to better our publication. Some have turned out to the best and the others will be worked out at a later time. More work goes into the publication than is realized. It's always work to meet the deadline but ask anyone in Press Club and you'll hear it's fun too.

Camera

Club

D. Falkner, J. Luiken

The Camera Club, formally known as "Shutter Bugs," was organized in 1951 by Mr. Carlson. It began as a projectionists club, but later developed into a photography club.

Members have also become interested in stage lighting and electrical gadgets of all kinds.

Space for a dark room was secured in the basement, so it was built and equiped with an enlarger, printer, and all the other necessary equipment used in enlarging and developing photos.

Officers of the club are as follows: Ray Hanson, President, Dee Pendergast, Sec.-Treas.

The year 1952 was a good one for the Lakers, they came through with four wins and five losses. Coaching the team was Ernest Madson assisted by Vernon Berglund.

The Lakers placed Captain John James, Dean Childs, and Don Lewis on the Middle Six All-Conference team. Seniors that saw their last season of high school football were John James, Dean Childs, Don Lewis, Ralph Etherington, Dennis Mikkelson, Donald Luiken, Lennis Hughes, Homer Jarvis, Robert Busby, and John Williams.

Everyone will agree that the Madelia game was the most exciting with the score tied until the last few seconds. Good going fellows, that's one we'll never forget!
